Forty-five Calibre Does Its Bloody Work-A Negro Man Shot Through the Shoulder by Chas. Campbell.

Last night about 11 o'clock a shooting took place at the Horse Head saloon on Main street, that may prove a serious affair for the principals. Almost immediately after the occurrence of the Main and Ninth streets, Rev. P. H. on a trip to C most immediately after the occurrence of the House superintend. a GAZETTE reporter appeared upon the ent. Prea ene and succeeded in gathering the following particulars: It appears that a negro named Wm. that a negro named Wm. Randolph employed as a porter in the gambling saloon above the Horse Head, entered the latter saloon and asked for some drinks. In some inexplicable manner Randolph and Rev. Robert D. Wear, pastor. Sabbath Jim Griffin, the bar-keeper, became involved in a difficulty. The negro started to leave the saloon and Griffin ran out from behind the bar and struck at him just as he reached the side door down in the front part of the saloon leading to the staircase. Just then a shot was heard and the negro FOR SALE—FIVE PURE BRED AUGURA for sometime head of the sairs. The reporter interviewed Griffin when the latter half grown. Will be sold at a bargoin.

rumored that there was a woman in the theatre in male attire. Sheriff Maddox, who was in the neighborbood, heard the report and at once entered the building and seated himself beside the couple, with whom he entered into conversation.

After a few minutes be requested one of them to take off his hat. To this the other objected, but finally acknowledged that she was a woman. Sheriff Maddox immediately placed them under arrest. The man gave his name as J. B. Bales and claimed that his companion was his wife, and they were recently married in Washington territory, where her parents live. He said that he is from Arkansas City, Arkansas. He is a young man of about twenty-five years, rather good looking and well dressed. The woman says she is twenty years old, and is short squarely built, with black hair and eyes, and might be termed by many a handsome woman. They said they had no acquaintance in the city and were unable to procure bond, but were willing to put up the amount of the bond in cash. As they were supplied with plenty of money, they easily found bondsmen and were released.
